

JULIA MÜLLER

Julia Müller is a Netherlands-born, New York-based stylist. After receiving her BA in Psychology at The University of Amsterdam and her fashion degree at ESMOD in Paris, she has been working as a stylist all over the world. Her style can be described as creative and conceptual. Julia loves to work with layering and making outfits look rich and high-end. She works with different shapes, colors, & textures and gets her inspiration from artists like Rothko, Frida Kahlo, and Salvador Dali. Styling for her is creating a fantasy, a beautiful dream.

Julia has worked with renowned photographers, such as Albert Watson, Ben Hassett, and Domen & Van de Velde, on many high-end publications including Vogue, Harper's Bazaar, ELLE, Numero, and L'Officiel.

