Hi. I'm Angela!

I am Angela R. Lewis, a former professional basketball player, author, and Head of Operations at SpeakerHUB. With a background deeply rooted in sports, I bring unique insights from my experience as a high-level athlete and championship-winning coach to my work in leadership and team collaboration.

I leverage my extensive background to empower individuals and organizations, drawing on lessons from the court to foster teamwork, resilience, and effective communication.

My life was profoundly transformed when I made the bold decision to sell all my possessions and move to Medellín, Colombia, where I lived for nearly three years. This experience taught me the power of letting go to reach my goals—a principle I now share with leaders and teams navigating transitions and striving for success. My time in Colombia deepened my appreciation for diverse perspectives, adaptability, and cultural understanding, which all inform my approach to leadership, collaboration, and personal growth.

My mission is to equip leaders and teams with the skills they need to thrive by providing practical frameworks for building relationships, navigating transitions, and achieving long-term success.

Highlights

- Authored several books which use sports as powerful metaphors for life's challenges and successes.
- Honored with the prestigious Robin Roberts Sports Communication Award for outstanding contributions to sports communication.
- Hosted basketball programs globally to empower youth to learn discipline and hard work
- Amplify the voices of leaders around the world through my work with SpeakerHUB

SPEAKING TOPICS

Below are sample presentation topics. More topics are available leadership, sports, communication etc.

- ✓ Why Leading Yourself is More Important Than Leading Others - Great leadership begins within. The session emphasizes the importance of aligning personal values with actions, developing resilience through challenges, and mastering self-awareness to build authentic influence.
- ✓ Let Go to Create Flow - Explores the transformative power of releasing what no longer serves you to make space for growth and success. Drawing from my experience of selling everything and moving to Medellín, Colombia, I share how embracing change and letting go can lead to clarity, alignment, and new opportunities.
- ✓ How to Transfer Skills from Sports to Business and Life - This presentation highlights the invaluable lessons learned on the court and how they seamlessly translate into professional and personal success. From teamwork and discipline to resilience and leadership, this talk explores how athletes can leverage their unique skill set to excel in business, navigate challenges, and thrive in life beyond sports.
