Keynote Speaker | 2x Author | Award-Winning Entrepreneur

ABOUT ME

In 2008, I lost my leg in combat while attempting to save a comrade's life. Thirty-four surgeries later, I didn't just recover—I came back unbreakable. Stronger. Fiercer. With purpose.

I rebuilt my life, reclaimed my faith, and built thriving businesses from scratch. Pain became fuel. Every setback? A setup for growth.

Now I'm here to show you: your darkest moments are sparks. Your hardest fight is your launchpad. Let's rise.
