

Biography of Dana Larson Bowen

Dana Larson Bowen, a native of Simons Island, Georgia, has carved a significant mark in various industries by sheer force of leadership, continuous learning, and strategic innovation. She has proved her acumen and versatility by doing diverse roles such as president, CEO, owner, and a leading contractor in various industries such as conservation, medical management, hospitality, and sporting goods.

Career Milestones

She started her career journey with charismatic leadership that has seen her successfully own and manage several for-profit and not-for-profit organizations known for delivering outstanding service. One of her significant accomplishments includes her tenure as President/CEO/Owner of Coastal Management Group, LLC, where she made noteworthy contributions to the conservation of LongLeaf Pine Plantations.

Her portfolio diversified further when she became the President/Owner of World Tree Sporting, Inc. in Thomasville, GA. Apart from managing collections, including Purdy & Sons Expo training, she was also instrumental in preserving natural resources. One of her unique virtues is her commitment to continuous learning, as demonstrated by her numerous certifications, such as the Certified Risk Manager and Commercial Shrimp Farming Certification.

As the President of Medical Management Standards, Inc., she successfully implemented various Medical Inmate Physician Contracts for Counties and Municipalities. One of her significant contributions was her initiative to reduce county budget expenses by adjudicating hospital and inmate medical treatment prices.

No challenge seemed too prodigious for her, as she ventured into the restaurant business in 2003, owning D'Ashley, Inc. in Blackshear, GA, reflecting her business acumen in the hospitality industry.

Dana Larson Bowen

No challenge seemed too prodigious for her, as she ventured into the restaurant business in 2003, owning D'Ashley, Inc. in Blackshear, GA, reflecting her business acumen in the hospitality industry.

Aiming for New Horizons

Bowen's aspirations and continuous learning mantra saw her showing interest in working with Odyssey Aviation. Her rich experience in branding and marketing, working closely with regional and national clients, developing niche industry campaigns, and solid building political contacts are testaments to her adaptive leadership style. She believes her extensive experience could bring a unique perspective to Odyssey Aviation.

Dana Larson Bowen

her tenure as President/CEO/Owner of Coastal Management Group, LLC, where she made noteworthy contributions to the conservation of LongLeaf Pine Plantations.

Academic Qualifications

She holds an associate's degree in Business from South Georgia College, Douglas, GA, and a Bachelor of Arts in Public Relations from Valdosta State University. Her pursuit of continuous learning saw her achieving the Certified Insurance Counselor Certification from the National Society of Certified Insurance Counselors, further supplementing her rich professional profile.

Charitable Endeavours

Besides her professional accomplishments, she has actively participated in various charitable activities. Rotary International recognized her for her fundraising efforts and Christmas Toy Drive. She served the Independent Insurance Agents of Georgia as a Young Agents Board Member and actively participated in Business Representation on the Blackshear Elementary School Board. Her commendable philanthropic work sets a precedent for leaders who strive to make a difference beyond their professional lives.

Dana Larson Bowen

Dana Larson Bowen, a native of Simons Island, Georgia, has carved a significant mark in various industries by sheer force of leadership, continuous learning, and strategic innovation.

Throughout her multifaceted career, Dana Larson Bowen has exemplified visionary leadership and a dedication to continuous learning. Her diverse professional experiences, coupled with her active involvement in philanthropy, demonstrate the truly dynamic and versatile professional that she is. Her life's work is a testament to her commitment to service, growth, and passion for perpetual learning and development.