

Biography of David Bovino

○

David Bovino

We are committed to pursuing aggressive and innovative approaches to our clients' most challenging legal matters.

○

○

David Bovino, a distinguished attorney and founding partner of Bovino & Associates PC, a firm known for our creative, aggressive litigators and willingness to take on tough cases. We outthink and outflank our opponents and understand how to win for our clients. We have extensive trial experience and are always trial-ready, representing both plaintiffs and defendants in every area of litigation. We are committed to pursuing aggressive and innovative approaches to our client's most challenging legal matters.

With a career that spans Miami, Florida; Aspen, Colorado; New York City, New York; and Los Angeles, California, David has established himself as a formidable figure in the legal industry. Beyond his professional pursuits, his life is enriched by a variety of interests, ranging from global travel to competitive sports, painting a picture of a well-rounded individual.

Professional Achievements

At the helm of Bovino & Associates PC, David has been instrumental in shaping the firm's reputation for taking on challenging cases and achieving remarkable success. His legal prowess is evident in his record of representing both plaintiffs and defendants across various areas of litigation. Some of his most notable achievements include securing a $22 million medical malpractice verdict, one of the largest in Santa Clara County, a $25 million wrongful death settlement, and representing high-profile clients. His career is also marked by a $3 million settlement in a significant corporate litigation case, further demonstrating his skill in corporate litigation.

Legal Philosophy and Community Involvement

David's approach to law is grounded in his academic background, where he developed a philosophy characterized by aggressive and innovative strategies tailored to each client's unique legal challenges. His commitment to excellence extends beyond the courtroom, as evidenced by his involvement in the YPO-WPO Aspen Chapter, an elite global network of executives and entrepreneurs. As a founding member, David has shown exemplary leadership and networking skills.

David Bovino's life is a testament to the relentless pursuit of excellence, both professionally and personally. His legal acumen, combined with his diverse interests and passions, shape him as a formidable attorney and an individual with a rich and multifaceted life. His story is one of dedication, not only to his career in law but also to the adventures and relationships that define his personal journey.