

Biography of Gabriel Warren

Gabriel Warren is a healthcare consultant based in Tallahassee, Florida. Gabriel previously practiced law as a shareholder at Rutledge Ecenia P.A., where he provided legal counsel to clients in regulated industries such as healthcare, medical marijuana, alcohol, and gaming. He has over 14 years of experience in the legal field, and his practice focuses on civil, regulatory, and administrative law.

Gabriel's Early Life

Gabriel (Gabe) Francisco Villacorta Warren was born on April 6, 1984, in Tallahassee, Florida, where he attended local schools. He excelled in his studies, ultimately enrolling in the International Baccalaureate program during high school. Following high school, Gabriel attended Duke University in Durham, North Carolina, in 2006 and pursued a Bachelor of Arts in History and a Minor in Political Science. At Duke, his hard work extended beyond academics; he also worked for the athletic department.

Building a Legal Foundation

After his time at Duke, Gabriel decided to pursue a career in law and enrolled at Vanderbilt University Law School in Nashville, Tennessee. He worked hard at law school and earned a Dean's Scholar recognition. Gabriel was also actively involved in various competitions and student organizations. He participated in the Mock Trial and Moot Court Competitions. His interest in international law led him to join the International Law Practice Lab, where he gained invaluable experience.

During law school, Gabriel also dedicated his efforts to helping others by being involved in the Legal Aid Society. He completed his Doctor of Jurisprudence degree in May 2010.

Foundations of Professional Growth

Gabriel began building his legal career through various internships and roles in law school. In the spring of 2007, Gabriel worked as a Project Assistant for The Constitution Project in Washington, D.C. He then transitioned to being a Summer Intern for Judge Eugene E. Siler, Jr at the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit in London, Kentucky. Also, in the summer of 2008, Gabriel worked at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Western District of North Carolina in Charlotte. These experiences gave him first-hand experience of how the courts and government operate and make legal decisions.

During the summer of 2009, Gabriel worked as a Summer Associate at Parker Poe Adams & Bernstein in Charlotte, North Carolina. He assisted with legal issues, including drafting memos, briefs, and contracts. He also conducted legal research and helped with depositions and mediations.

Career at Rutledge Ecenia P.A.

After graduating from Vanderbilt Law School in 2010, Gabriel began his legal career at Rutledge Ecenia P.A. in Tallahassee, Florida. He was ultimately made a shareholder at the firm due to his hard work and commitment. Gabriel's practice at Rutledge Ecenia focused on civil, regulatory, and administrative matters.

One of Gabriel's major focuses during his time as an attorney was healthcare. He represented healthcare providers such as hospitals, nursing homes, clinics, home health agencies, and assisted living facilities, helping them navigate state and federal regulatory requirements.

Gabriel is also knowledgeable about the marijuana industry. He helped businesses understand licensing requirements and compliance with state and federal laws. Other areas he focused on include the gaming and alcohol industries. These industries are highly regulated, and Gabriel represented clients in administrative and legal proceedings in addition to providing assistance with compliance.

Key Areas of Specialization

Gabriel has diverse expertise and skills that make him proficient in healthcare and other regulated industries. Some of these include:

- Regulatory compliance: Gabriel helped healthcare providers, as well as stakeholders in other industries, comply with state and federal regulations.
- Healthcare reimbursement: Gabriel assisted clients in understanding reimbursement issues and compliance.
- Enforcement: Gabriel helped clients navigate state and federal civil and administrative enforcement actions.
- Licensing: Gabriel helped clients seek and obtain any necessary licences from state and federal government agencies.
- Legislation: Gabriel assisted clients with analyzing current and proposed legislation, as well as state and federal rules.

Career Highlights and Achievements

Throughout his career, Gabriel has achieved notable professional milestones. Staying with one firm for 14 years is uncommon in the legal field, which signifies his commitment and dedication. As a partner at Rutledge Ecenia, he built a reputation as a knowledgeable attorney specializing in healthcare and other regulated industries.

Making a Difference

Gabriel believes in giving back to the community, has participated in various charitable activities, and has supported numerous organizations. These include America's Second Harvest, the Nature Conservancy, and the Legal Aid Foundation of Tallahassee, showing his zeal for fighting hunger and promoting legal access for those in need. Gabriel is also involved with local schools in Tallahassee, as well as his alma mater, Duke University, and has supported environmental groups.

Beyond the Office

Gabriel is an active member of the Tallahassee community. He enjoys spending time with his wife, Sarah Warren, and their seven-year-old daughter, Tinsley. Gabriel is also fond of playing golf, fishing, and travelling. These activities help him relax and enjoy his free time.