

Biography of Henry Criss

Henry Criss has emerged as a seasoned executive leader adept across various sectors. His unwavering dedication to positively influencing his community and empowering others aligns seamlessly with his Marine Corps veteran and former public safety professional background. Currently, he holds the position of Owner/Managing Partner at the Fraum Center for Restorative Health in Hilton Head Island, SC.

His professional journey is characterized by dynamic leadership roles, emphasizing organizational excellence. With a robust healthcare management and public policy foundation, he has been pivotal in leading transformative initiatives across multiple domains. His tenure as a fireman was distinguished, marked by receiving the Fire Chief's Leadership Award, a testament to his exemplary leadership capabilities.

In his current capacity, he takes charge of the Fraum Center for Restorative Health, meticulously overseeing every aspect of the practice. His role ensures the delivery of high-quality healthcare services to the community, while his leadership skills extend beyond the healthcare sector into active public service. This is evident in his involvement in roles such as serving on the United Way Regional Campaign Cabinet.

Henry Criss

As Owner/Managing Partner of the Fraum Center for Restorative Health, Henry oversees all aspects of the practice, ensuring the delivery of high-quality healthcare services to the community.

His expertise encompasses business management, leadership, and public service. He is adept at leading organizational changes, grant management, and accounting. His commitment to servant leadership is crucial in creating an empowering atmosphere for team members, encouraging them to realize their full potential.

His academic background has been instrumental in shaping his career path. He holds a Cum Laude degree in Religion from Liberty University, followed by a Master of Public Administration, with a specialization in public and nonprofit management. Additionally, he is an alumnus of prestigious programs such as the South Carolina Local Government Institute and the Hilton Head Island Bluffton Chamber of Commerce Leadership Program.

Henry Criss's passion for community service is demonstrated through his philanthropic efforts. He actively supports various organizations, including the Hilton Head Boys and Girls Club, the Outside Foundation, and Hospice Care of the Lowcountry. His role in the Vanlandingham Rotary Club further amplifies his commitment to charity, as he engages in numerous charitable initiatives.