

Biography of Nick Dolbin

Chief of Police Nick Dolbin is a committed law enforcement officer with over 14 years of experience, including leadership roles. His problem-solving skills, attention to detail, interpersonal abilities, calm demeanor under pressure, and initiative have earned him multiple commendations and department awards in Ohio law enforcement.

He has been recognized as Rookie of the Year (East Cleveland), Top Drug Buster, Top Traffic Enforcement, Top OVI Cuyahoga County (MADD), and Top Seat Belt Cuyahoga County.

Additionally, he has received a Youth Community Award, a Department Commendation, and an award from the Gun Safety Task Force.

Nick is also a licensed real estate agent who manages Premier Field Services, a real estate sales and property management company in Strongsville, Ohio, when not serving the public.

Nick's Law Enforcement Career

As a 911 Operations Supervisor for the Cuyahoga County Department of Justice (CECOMS), he supervises call-taker shifts for the Cuyahoga County 911 system, which handles 8,000 to 9,000 calls daily. He manages AMBER Alerts, coordinates mass casualty responses for Cuyahoga County, handles media alerts, and oversees cell phone pings. He also monitors radio traffic and channels, assisting local Fire and Police Departments with special requests.

He oversees personnel's daily functions, reviews and evaluates employee performance, and recommends training when needed.

In addition to his role as Operations Supervisor, Nick also serves as a police sergeant for the Timberlake Police Department, where he is a TAC Officer, on Command Staff, and a Taser Instructor. He is also responsible for overseeing patrolmen.

The Start of His Career in Law Enforcement

Nick began his career in law enforcement as an entry-level police officer for the Cuyahoga Metropolitan Housing Authority, patrolling a subsidized housing complex.

He then worked for various other police departments in Cleveland, Ohio, and beyond. He was a Commander for the Amsterdam Police Department and a police officer for the East Cleveland Department. He served as a police officer for the Geneva on the Lake Police Department, where he was responsible for their largest meth seizure (three pounds) during a traffic stop.

His law enforcement career also includes the position of Administrative Sergeant for the MetroHealth Police Department, where he was responsible for dispatch, radios, FTO programs, uniforms, vehicles, equipment, annual in-service training, policies and procedures, recruitment, and grants. He was a TAC Officer, Firearms Instructor, Range Master, and Glock Armorer.

Awarded Numerous Certifications

Throughout his various law enforcement roles, Nick gained extensive experience and earned several certifications, including Crisis Intervention Training (CIT), Public Safety Telecommunicator (PST), Emergency Medical Dispatch (EMD), Communications Training Officer (CTO), Field

Training Officer (FTO), Background Investigator, Semi-Auto Pistol Instructor, Shotgun Instructor, and Taser Instructor.

Nick Began His Career in the Insurance Industry

Before entering law enforcement, Nick worked in the insurance industry. He was a Manager of Statewide Operations for Medical Mutual of Ohio, overseeing the daily operations of claims and customers. He also worked at Klais and Company as Manager of Workers' Compensation, heading the daily operations of a BWC Managed Care Organization.

He entered the insurance industry as a Claims Specialist for the Ohio Bureau of Workers Compensation, where he managed claims from injured workers. He worked directly with injured workers, providers, employers, and attorneys.

A Graduate of CSU

Nick Dolbin graduated from Cleveland State University with a Bachelor of Business Administration in Management and Labor Relations. He also attended the Cleveland Heights Police Academy and Southwest Florida Public Service Academy.

Always looking to expand his knowledge and skill sets, Nick has also taken courses in Executive Management Leadership at Ashland University.

Dedicated to Community Service

Community service extends beyond his law enforcement work and is integral to Nick's life. He has received several awards for Community Youth Service and Gun Safety Outreach with the United States Attorney in Northeast Ohio.

With the MetroHealth Police Department, he supported The MetroHealth Advocates for Community and School Safety (MACSS), a clinical and support staff committee working to increase gun safety and advocate that gun violence be treated as a public health issue. The MACSS worked with MetroHealth's Office of Public Safety to distribute free gun locks to individuals. Nick and his fellow officers demonstrated proper safety procedures for securing a weapon, installing a lock, and handling guns safely.

Working on Home Projects

In his free time, Nick enjoys working on projects around the house. He gets many of his ideas from home improvement shows and uses these to bring his vision to life in his home.

He also enjoys vacationing with his family. Exercising and staying healthy and fit are important to him personally and for his job.

Nick Dolbin's dedication to his professional career and community service is a testament to his character and commitment.
