

Biography of Olusesan Afara

A professional headshot of Olusesan Afara, a Black man with a shaved head, wearing a light gray suit jacket, a white shirt, and a blue tie. He is smiling and looking directly at the camera. The background is a dark, solid color.

Olusesan Afara

From 2006 to 2007, he served as a liaison at the Expeditionary Combat Readiness Center, Little Creek, VA, which earned him a Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal.

Olusesan Afara stands as a testament to the power of dedication and versatility, and he is recognized for his significant contributions in multiple arenas: as a personnel specialist, officer recruiter, financial educator, and real estate investor. His noteworthy achievements span his time with the U.S. Navy and extend into financial education and real estate investing.

Career in the Navy

His naval journey began in July 2004, marking the start of a remarkable path filled with commendable accomplishments. From 2006 to 2007, his tenure as a liaison at the Expeditionary Combat Readiness Center in Little Creek, VA, was distinguished by his receipt of the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal.

His Navy career is characterized by multiple assignments and commendable performances, leading to his promotion to Chief Petty Officer (Senior Enlisted) in September 2017. Shortly after, he played a pivotal role in the leadership team of the Personnel Office aboard the USS Carl Vinson (CVN 70), leading to exceptional results in a surprise Field Examination Group Audit in 2019.

He exemplified outstanding service and leadership, earning the National Chaplain Recruiter of the Year award in 2021 and 2022. His service record boasts 4 Navy & Marine Corps Commendation Medals and 5 Navy & Marine Corps Achievement Medals. Presently, he contributes as an officer recruiter, focusing on sourcing and recruiting exceptional individuals to fulfill the Navy's personnel objectives.

Olusesan Afara

He is noted for his outstanding contributions to the U.S. Navy and his myriad financial education and real estate investing achievements.

A Passion for Real Estate Investing and Financial Education

Beyond his naval service, he harbors a deep interest in real estate investing and financial education. Motivated by a drive to enhance his income and economic stability, his journey into real estate investment has secured his financial future and opened doors to new possibilities in this field.

His financial acumen isn't kept to himself; he shares his financial literacy and real estate investment knowledge, helping others master their economic destinies. He finds great fulfillment in introducing others to the empowering prospects of economic and real estate literacy.

Community Involvement and Charitable Activities

In addition to his professional commitments, he is actively involved in community service and charity. He serves as the Building Fund Project Manager for the Redeemed Christian Church Of God in San Diego, California, a role he took on in December 2023.

His long-standing commitment as an Ushering Department Head for over a decade exemplifies his dedication to community service, showcasing his organizational and leadership skills and reflecting his strong work ethic.

Hobbies

His interests aren't confined to his professional and philanthropic engagements. He spends his leisure time researching real estate and is keen on understanding market trends and investment opportunities. This hobby complements his professional role as an investor and educator in real estate.

Additionally, he is passionate about teaching financial education, a pursuit that mirrors his belief in the importance of financial literacy and his dedication to empowering others financially.

Olusesan Afara embodies a unique blend of service, commitment, and excellence. His career spans from distinguished naval service to his involvement in real estate and financial education, all while maintaining a steadfast dedication to community service. Grounded and mission-driven, he continues to impact every aspect of his dynamic career significantly.