

Hi! My name is Caitlin and I am a YouTuber and a motivational speaker. I have a small YouTube channel that I am hoping to grow with the help of this website. I have a condition called Cerebral Palsy, which affects everything in my life. On my channel, I post videos talking about what it's like to live with a physical challenge and vlogs sharing what goes on in my day to day life, sharing some of the unique things that I go through on a daily basis. I also want to let people know that just because I have a disability, it doesn't mean that I can't be like everyone else.

About My Motivational Speaking:

Through motivational speaking, I hope to motivate and inspire others with different abilities to get out and explore life despite their challenges by sharing my story and my experiences living with a physical challenge. I mostly talk about what challenges I have and how I overcome them, and what I am capable of despite having a physical challenge that affects everything in my life. I have done a few speaking engagements for many years, and I am hoping to do a lot more in the next few years. I have spoken at several places including NYU, Kean University, and some fundraisers in the past. Most of these were for my dancing school, Dancing Dreams, to raise awareness for their organization, but others were just to talk about my story. If you are interested in my motivational speaking and want me for any events, please email me at cmwithcp@gmail.com
