As a self-publishing expert for nearly 20 years, I've also been a featured guest speaker at countless author events, workshops, and conferences to talk all things writing, publishing, marketing, and building a book brand that actually sells. My talks are known for being practical, no-fluff, and a little bit sassy—just like me. As a thought leader in the self-publishing space, I love helping indie authors cut through the noise and finally get the results they've been chasing.

But like the iconic Coco Chanel said, “In order to be irreplaceable, one must always be different.”
