BIO

Christopher Trocola is a visionary founder and an AI Compliance Specialist and has over two decades in entrepreneurship.

- He is the IP architect behind Mentis Technologies compliance tech, which spearheaded one of the world's first AI agents capable of replacing entire call centers while meeting strict regulatory standards.
- He is known as "The Crystal Ball" for his razor-sharp foresight and uncannily accurate market predictions in the renewable energy sector.
- He has protected billions in contracts and shaped solar legislation across multiple states, including influencing 10 laws, similar to his work on Nevada's SB293.
- He is recognized as an IAOTP Top Founder & CEO of the Year (2024) and a Marquis Who's Who Honored Listee (2023 & 2024).
