Biography

Dr. Charlotte Chun is a licensed psychologist with a Master's in Applied Cognition & Neuroscience and a PhD in Clinical Psychology.

Dr. Chun is an expert in memory and identity development, somatic healing and psychedelic integration, and branding and marketing strategy.

With 18 years of experience working in health care as a provider, researcher, and branding & marketing consultant across private, public, and non-profit sectors, she truly knows the industry inside and out.

Author of Earliest Memories, Dr. Chun artfully weaves together an approachable explanation of the science of memory, a never-before-seen collection of first memories from around the world, and an enthralling dive into the philosophical mysteries of memory and nostalgia.
