Corbin Cornwell

Founder

Galveston, TX, USA corbincornwell.com

Academically, Corbin Cornwell embarked on his journey at St. Anne's and Monsignor Kelly Catholic High Schools before moving on to Texas State University. He graduated with two degrees in Finance and Management and a minor in Economics. During his university years, he actively participated in extracurricular activities, serving in student government and holding multiple executive positions in Delta Tau Delta Fraternity.

Corbin's commitment to his community goes beyond his professional endeavors. He has volunteered and fundraised for various charities, including the Wounded Warrior Project, Bobcat Build, and Mobile Loaves & Fishes. His community service contributions range from river cleanup efforts to volunteering at local community events.

Corbin's personal life is an exciting blend of music and outdoor pursuits. His love for water sports and music dates back to his childhood, greatly influenced by his father. A keen fitness enthusiast, Corbin adheres to a robust fitness regimen that he started in his early teens. His love for music saw him co-founding Lunar Events, a platform for local music events in Austin.

The trajectory of Cornwell's life, from an Eagle Scout and Pope Pius Award recipient to a successful entrepreneur, is a testament to his resilience and diverse capabilities. With the fourth summer of Big Tex Boat Rentals on the horizon, his dynamic spirit continues to resonate with the adventurous ethos of Texas.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Big Tex Boat Rentals

Founder

March 2020 - | Galveston, Texas, United States

United Bank Of Switzerland

Intern

January 2015 - November 2019 | Galveston, Texas, United States

---

EDUCATION

Texas State University

Graduated in Finance and Management with a minor in Economics

August 2014 - December 2019 | Galveston, Texas, United States