DW's solution to this crisis is a process that incorporates skills they will learn to unleash and manifest the confidence that is already within them, now.

Many youth and adults play out scripts and movies in their minds. Their unconscious self-talk is often "I'm not good enough," "I don't deserve success," and "I'm not worthy." These inner-movies run repeatedly and are often self-defeating. As Confidence Crusader™, DW teaches audiences how to re-write those scripts and re-direct those inner-movies.
