Kind words...

Katherine is a very insightful individual, actively listening to everyone she engages to help them create their personal story. I strongly recommend her to all who are seeking to develop their professional path.

Jan Nelson, Principal Lead Program Manager, Microsoft

Katherine is an engaged teacher, colleague, and mentor, who remains in all that she does an ever-present learner herself in all senses of the word. Her work as teacher is marked by a deep sense of curiosity and commitment to communities and the many cultures that infuse them. She designs learning experiences for her students that cultivate in them their sense of responsibility, accountability, and involvement in their cultures. Learning such as this makes clear the immediate impact students can have in the communities in which they live and learn.

Kind words...

Katie has re-invigorated my passion for my career, my life, and my future. She really listens and has the tools to truly help solve problems. Her level of knowledge, compassion, and joy in what she does is such a breath of fresh air to be around. I recommend taking any workshop, class, etc. that Katie offers. I look forward to being a part of the community she has created and can't wait to see what new ideas come up next for us all.

Angie Roberts, Program Director, Breakwater Expeditions

Katie is a wealth of knowledge, amazing facilitator and brings about the right-brain potential through the mind's blocks and using the exercise of identifying limiting beliefs. She has been immeasurable in my business success. Happy to see what is to come.

Carly Williams, Owner, Carly's Compass

Katie is action-oriented, insightful, thoughtful, a great listener. She will consider all possibilities and propose solutions that meet your needs and those of your team.

Joyce Palmer, Grants Manager, Cornish College of the Arts

I was impressed with Katherine's leadership before, during, and after the conference, and the students all spoke very highly of Katherine upon their return. I would hire her again for this kind of project in a heartbeat.

Tim Jones PhD, Chair of Political Science & International Studies,
Bellevue College

Katie is one of the most creative, innovative and positive people I have ever known.

Dr. Jorge Nelson, International Baccalaureate Coordinator, Shelton School District

Sada Simran Khalsa, Director, Guru Gayatri Meditation Center

Katie is highly educated, wise beyond her years and has a creative business mindset. She is a great listener and a problem solver. She is an incredible asset to our community, and I would highly recommend her services if you want to grow your business.

Kelly Thielbahr, Co-owner, WE Yoga Studio

Katherine Greenland has a cool calm presence. She delivers information clearly and inspires action by really tuning in to the needs and desires of her clients. I attended one of her Right Brain Business Plan workshops and came out refreshed, clear and validated. A couple of weeks later I finally published my website. This has been in the works and off and on my back burner for at least 2 Years!

Kelly Greenway, Owner, DIG Nutrition

Katherine is motivated to continue to make a difference in the world. Her integrity, drive, and substantial capacities have earned my full support. I recommend her most highly.

Ted Hope, Founder, Institute for Village Studies

Working with Katie has given me courage! She has turned my perception of failure into FEEDBACK! I really appreciate how authentic Katie is. Her presentation is non-judgmental, and she always shares her own stories that help to normalize some of the barriers/issues that others are struggling with. I can't wait to see where this next year takes me. Having Katie in my back pocket makes me feel like anything is possible.
