MEET FELICIA JOYNER

Felicia Joyner leads TekBizTranslations with a clear mission: to help businesses AIM—Automation, Innovation, and Mastery. She simplifies digital transformation by leveraging AI, business analysis, and data tools to drive measurable results.

Felicia's relatable, no-nonsense style captivates audiences, sparking "aha" moments that inspire action. Clients consistently share stories of career and business breakthroughs.

Beyond the boardroom and conference stage, Felicia is a wife, mom of three, and proud grandma to two musical granddaughters. She brings the same warmth and wisdom she shares with her family into every engagement, making her a trusted advisor to corporate leaders.

MISSION

Felicia revolutionizes operations by streamlining outdated processes and implementing efficient, scalable solutions. Leaders quickly see the value as her strategies align with business goals, boosting productivity and profitability.

EXPERTISE

With over 25 years in tech, Felicia Joyner analyzes business needs for strategic work cutting across teams and systems. Her frameworks ensure that digital tools support Objectives and Key Results, improve efficiency, and keep talent engaged.
