WHO IS GREG COLEMAN?

Greg Coleman is an inspirational speaker, gifted storyteller and transformational expert, teaching leaders and business owners how to Flip the Field, get a Leg Up on Life, and Shift the Atmosphere in their companies and organizations using proven principles. He has spoken across the country to a diverse group of corporations, community organizations and associations, as well as faith-based institutions.

Greg has a special passion for business, civic leaders and public safety workers charged with leadership in our communities. He understands that communication is the number one ingredient in building a formidable team. Learning how to work effectively as a team is a key component in all his messages. Your group will walk away with practical Principles, Guidance, Motivation, and Inspiration they need to take their team to the Next Level.

Some of his most notable distinctions are of being the first African American punter in the NFL and his induction into the 2021 class of the Black College Football Hall of Fame. For 21 years, he served as the Sideline Analyst for the Minnesota Vikings Radio Network. He recently retired at the end of the 2021 NFL season. He also spent 24 years as a C-level Executive at an international communications company in their public safety market. Greg also serves as the Executive Director of the Bob Hayes Track Meet, one of the largest one-day High School meets in the country.

All of these personal achievements in sports and corporate America have given Greg a Leg Up on Life and he is ready to Flip the Field and share these keys to his success in his recently launched speaking business, "Greg Coleman8 Speaks". He recently published his first book, PUNT - Flip the Field and Get a Leg Up On Life.

TESTIMONIALS

"Greg was great. On point, relevant and inspirational. Guests were engaging with him afterwards, thanking him, and taking photos with him."

- Lionel Hanley, Director of Marketing, OffenderWatch

"I thought Greg did a great job. Very inspiring talk on paths - we take and paths we don't take and how that effects the rest of our lives. He also did a good job talking of teamwork and how that makes individuals better as well as the team more successful in any endeavor."
