PROFILE

With a background in military and civil special operations, Guy Beveridge is an internationally known trainer, speaker, professional security consultant and licensed master peace officer in Texas.

He is an expert in security management, crime, loss prevention, investigations, and crisis response and has managed security projects, both national and international for businesses that top the Fortune 500 list. He specializes in prediction, recognition, and evaluation of crime risk and consults with business owners, managers, insurance carriers, and police worldwide developing congruent plans to reduce crime risk through policy design and training.

Guy worked on the FBI Joint Terrorism task force immediately following the events of 9/11 to develop first responder response protocols and capabilities for terrorist attacks. In his current role he professionally instructs and speaks on Safety and Security for churches, hospitals and corporations. Guy Beveridge is the CEO of Protector's Toolkit and hosts the A Word & A Weapon podcast.

Additionally, he is an adjunct instructor for the ALERRT Center (Texas State University), the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center (FLETC), The Bill Blackwood Law Enforcement Management Institute of Texas (LEMIT) and is a member of the board for Texas Justice of the Peace and Constables education and training development.
