Italia Tornabene is a distinguished entrepreneur and speaker who has transformed a life of adversity into one of remarkable achievement.

Raised in poverty with limited resources, she built her success through determination, resilience, and the drive to create opportunities where none existed. Her journey from hardship to success gives her an authentic, powerful voice as a speaker, inspiring audiences to overcome challenges and pursue their goals with confidence.

A serial entrepreneur, Italia has founded multiple successful businesses, including Tornabene Wine, an award-winning premium wine company, and Baxter Learns to Save, a children's financial literacy brand. She is also an award-winning author, a life and business coach, and the founder of EmpowerHer Journey, Inc., a nonprofit dedicated to helping underprivileged men and women start and grow their own businesses. Through her books, keynotes, and coaching, Italia empowers others to recognize their potential and create meaningful, lasting success.
