

DR. JARIK CONRAD

ABOUT ME

DR. JARIK E. CONRAD SPHR, SHRM-CSP, NACD.DC, is a distinguished thought leader who leverages an interdisciplinary approach to address the most pressing challenges facing individuals and organizations today. He has been recognized multiple times as one of the world's top "people practitioners" in the annual HRD Global 100 and was named a top 100 HR Influencer by Engagedly.

He earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Illinois, two master's degrees from Cornell University, and a Doctor of Education from the University of North Florida. He is the author of two award-winning best-selling books, The Fragile Mind and In Search of Humanity. A strong advocate for health and wellness, he appeared in the documentary Eating You Alive and designed, led, and published a clinical trial on emotional intelligence education and plant-based nutrition while serving as a research collaborator with the Mayo Clinic.

As Managing Director of Human Like Me, he delivers tailored education and transformative solutions that empower individuals to restore their health, revive their energy, and elevate their personal and professional impact. He previously served as the VP of Human Insights at UKG and Executive Director of the company's global think tank, The Workforce Institute.

Dr. Conrad is a board member of Homestart and serves as an advisory board member for the Wellness Alliance and the Fowler Business School at San Diego State University (SDSU). He is also a member of the Consortium for Research on Emotional Intelligence in Organizations (CREIO), which brings together leading scholars and thought leaders to explore recent advances in emotional intelligence.
