

Katherine CLEMONS

Live on Purpose.

Katherine Clemons is four time published author, previous LinkedIn Top Public Speaking Voice, and two time founder with half a decade of public speaking experience. She has spoken on several panels at colleges, industry conferences, and association meetings.

Katherine is obsessed with letting post college graduates and young adults know that living out their wildest dreams is possible, and she has the story to prove it.

In 2023, She gave herself the challenge of completing 100 "impossible" goals, and ended up completing all 100 (and then some) within the year! She now wants to share the lessons she's learned with the world in hopes of creating a happier and healthier society.
