

Keegan Glade Keegan Glade

At just 26, Keegan Glade is a prominent young entrepreneur who adeptly juggles two pivotal roles: as Business Manager at Stone Manor on 79th, a distinguished family-owned wedding and event venue in Overland Park, Kansas, and as a Pricing Analyst at Synergy Flavors, a leader in global flavor solutions.

Managing Stone Manor on 79th

Located in the historic Strang Line Car Barn built in 1908, Stone Manor on 79th has been transformed into a premier venue for weddings and special events under Keegan's management. This unique venue, renovated recently, blends the rustic elegance of natural stone walls and wood-planked barrel-roof ceilings with the sophistication of crystal chandeliers. Since stepping into the role of Business Manager earlier this year, Keegan has been pivotal in overseeing the venue's finance, business operations, and customer relationships, ensuring every event is a dream come true for the attendees.

Professional Role at Synergy Flavors

Keegan's career trajectory at Synergy Flavors has been impressive, beginning right after his college graduation in 2021. Starting as a Business Development GDP Associate, he collaborated closely with various teams to enhance business relationships and revenue, contributing to significant growth and diversification in the company's portfolio. His promotion to Marketing GDP Associate saw him leading crucial marketing campaigns and coordinating significant company events like the IFT 2022. In his current role as Pricing Analyst, Keegan develops strategies that have notably increased the company's margins and streamlined its pricing processes.

Athletic Achievements

Adept on the golf greens, Keegan was a varsity team captain at Summit Christian Academy and later earned a scholarship to play at Olivet Nazarene University due to his exceptional skill, which includes two hole-in-ones. Additionally, his high school soccer career was equally illustrious, with national recognition for his defensive prowess.

Educational Background

Keegan graduated Cum Laude from Olivet Nazarene University in 2021, where he majored in Corporate Finance and Business Administration/Management. During his time at university, he also served as a College Financial Representative for Northwestern Mutual.

Community Involvement

Beyond his professional and athletic endeavors, Keegan is committed to giving back to the community. He actively participates in his church's activities and has undertaken mission trips to places like the Navajo reservation and inner-city Denver.

Keegan Glade exemplifies the blend of professional success, athletic excellence, and community service. He made significant strides in each area while still in his mid-twenties. His story is one of leadership, dedication, and multifaceted achievement.
