ABOUT ME

Passionate, energetic, knowledgeable, and compassionate, are a few words to describe, Nicholas Kelly's approach to life. His story began at three months old when his mother diagnosed him with Cystic Fibrosis. Growing up Nick strove for normalcy, valuing himself as a person, meant to stand out.

Nick thrived despite his disease; obtaining a Bachelor's and Master's degree from Bowling Green State University, and becoming a Dietitian.

In addition, he is an author, a decorated speaker, with more than 85 speeches, and an advocate. Nick's life has focused on utilizing his abilities and knowledge to influence those around him while acting as a positive representation of the educational, artistic, and CF and chronic illness community.
