Speaking Topics

include:

Fewer Cruise Ship Captains and More White Water Rafting Guides

Though cruises are enjoyable it is a less effective method of leadership. Let me guide you down the river of learning as we improve your leadership and problem solving skills patterned after a White Water Rafting Guide

Gamify Your Classroom

Connecting with students through the same skills it takes to play Super Mario Bros., we will fix broken grading practices and improve classroom management by removing behavior issues and teacher centered discipline. I will show you how.

Failing is a Given. Failure is a Choice

Having a growth mindset is vital to our students future success. Do your students know the difference between failing and failure? Having your students take ownership of their learning and realizing that failing is a key step down the road towards success.
