Work ↗ together.

I'm a speaker & professional musician who works with organizations that want to use a sensory experience to improve listening skills and collaboration.

What clients have to say

Paul is wise in the ways of corporations, organizations and other workplaces and uses music and the creative process as a metaphor for how work gets done.

— Your Workplace Magazine

His program truly represents the essence of teamwork, collaboration and active listening. If you want your team to work better together, I really recommend it! — GTAA

If an experiential, music-based presentation on leadership, personal accountability, and teamwork may sound unconventional, you've got to experience one of Paul's BOOM programs.

— CIBC

Paul did a great job getting us to rediscover the importance of listening to each other, pacing ourselves and staying with the rhythm in order to deliver a great result. — Heineken

I cannot over emphasize the value you brought to our organization by showing us how important we are to one another in achieving our future success.

— The Shopping Channel

The most incredible experience - great fun and learning! — Ernst and Young
