

Otto Plesner

Creative Director | Art & Tech

Otto Plesner is a Danish creative director, speaker, and writer exploring the convergence of art, technology, and science. A recognized LinkedIn thought leader in creativity and innovation, he shares reflections on how art can shape the future of human experience. Having spoken on global stages including LEAP (Riyadh), XPANSE (Abu Dhabi), Scena Jutra (Poland), CultTech(Vienna), Voices of Berlin and upcoming MWC Barcelona, His work investigates how creativity can become a catalyst for change in a world shaped by algorithms, inviting audiences to rethink what it means to be human in the age of artificial intelligence.
