

Lanesha Mohip, MBA, MHRM

Virtual CFO | Accounting Consultant | Educator | Speaker

Biography

Lanesha started her Accounting Firm back in 2018 while working as a Senior Accountant with HSBC Bank.

After attending a Real Estate Bootcamp the weekend of her birthday she was bit by the entrepreneurial bug and needed freedom from her 9-5. Her corporate Accounting experience for Fortune 500 organizations and 6- & 7-Figure startups has been an ideal foundation for her work as a Financial Consultant & Educator to Mompreneurs in their Business & Personal Finance goals.

Lanesha Mohip has an MBA in Public Administration & MHRM, a B.S. in Accounting, and a Series Licensed in Investment Products. Entrepreneurship is natural for Lanesha, clients have stated she is very personable, and have keen attention to detail, excellent listening skills, and a no-nonsense approach to uplifting women of color by showing great empathy for business owners are symbols of her appreciation for her clients. Lanesha has been featured as the Host of many Financial Workshops with the City of Chicago, Village of Grayslake, and Columbia University, and featured on Podcasts including Average Black Girl, Talk Wealthy to Me and Markitta in Your Business due to her comfort with women of color in the space of diversity and business.

Lanesha is happily married to her high school sweetheart, a mother, avid traveler, book addict, and Pixar stan. She loves to laugh, and collect great gifs and memes to the spice of conversation. Aside from business, she enjoys traveling, reading, relaxing in front of a beachfront view, spending time with close family, and friends, and meeting other introverted entrepreneurs.
