KEYNOTE SPEAKER & BEST-SELLING AUTHOR

Robb Holman has been ranked among the world's top 30 leadership speakers for three consecutive years (2022-present) by Global Gurus. He is a four-time author, and his innovative Inside Out Leadership philosophy has been featured in Inc., Forbes, and Fast Company. Fun fact: Robb played seven years of professional basketball

KEYNOTE TOPICS:

Leading the Way from Within

To address employee disengagement, leaders must tackle the root issue: the rigid separation between personal and professional life. Inside Out Leadership begins with YOU as a leader, not with those you lead.

Going All In

If we are to truly grasp why teams at work are failing, it comes down to one key factor: a lack of trust. If you want to foster more impactful team dynamics, trust is the key that unlocks healthy communication.

Moving the Needle of Influence

When goals and success measures overshadow our investment in people, team members feel like mere tools to achieve objectives rather than valued contributors. We must prioritize people over procedures for better results!

The Hidden Power of Receiving from Anyone, Anytime

Leaders and individuals often struggle with receiving help, praise, or different perspectives. By becoming more open to receiving, you enhance your ability to give purposefully and altruistically.

CONTENT: Inside Out Leadership keynotes can be customized for in-person or virtual settings, including interactive workshops, team retreats, and half- or full-day training sessions.

“Robb’s ability to capture an audience is unmatched.”
