

Roger Hoit Biography with Work Experience

Managing Director

Delray Beach, FL, USA be.net/rogerhoit

Roger Hoit, in his capacity as Managing Director at Moelis & Company, has made indelible marks in the financial sector by providing pivotal strategic advice to a sophisticated clientele involved in financial sponsorships. His journey in investment banking spans an impressive 25 years, during which he has adeptly handled a wide array of corporate finance transactions. His areas of expertise include the orchestration of mergers and acquisitions, leveraged buyouts, as well as equity and debt financings, bolstered by his strategic advisory on capital structure.

At the helm of the Private Equity Solutions Group, Roger caters to an elite global clientele encompassing leading Private Equity, Alternative Asset Management, and Family Office firms from his strategic base in West Palm Beach, Florida. His career trajectory features prominent roles, notably at Morgan Stanley within the Global Financial Sponsors Group, where he cultivated a leading advisory franchise. His experience is further enriched by tenures at SG Cowen and Gleacher & Co., with his professional beginnings traced back to PaineWebber Incorporated. His academic foundation is solidified by a B.A. in Economics from Amherst College.

Roger Hoit

Managing Director, Moelis & Company,
Investment Banking

Golfing on the Global Stage

Beyond the boardroom, Roger Hoit's accomplishments as an amateur golfer have garnered him recognition on both national and international platforms. His participation in over 25 National Championships under the auspices of the USGA and the Royal & Ancient—including three "Major Championships"—highlights his competitive spirit and skill. His journey through the greens includes memorable appearances in the United States Senior Open Championships and the British Senior Open Championship, among others.

Hoit's recent representation of the United States in The Bridges Cup in South Korea, where his team clinched victory, exemplifies his dedication to and prowess in golf. His competitive edge shines through his distinguished participation in prestigious Amateur Invitational tournaments globally, marking him as a formidable presence in the golfing community.

Creative Expression and Personal Life

His artistic journey unfolds through his passion for photography, where he captures the world through various lenses, from SLR and drone to iPhone. His works are featured on his dedicated website and Instagram and have been recognized in exhibitions, notably "The Eyes of Africa" at the DeCastellane Gallery in Brooklyn, NY.

On the personal front, Roger Hoit's life is enriched by his marriage to Gentry Ashmore Hoit since 1989, with whom he shares a fulfilling life in Delray Beach, FL. Their family includes two children, Morgan and Jackson, who have pursued successful careers in social media and finance.

His academic achievements include graduating from Amherst College in 1986 as a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society, highlighting his collegiate leadership as Captain of the Men's Tennis Team. His journey began at Milton Academy, setting the stage for a life marked by diverse interests ranging from travel and guitar to fitness and technology, painting a portrait of a multifaceted individual committed to excellence across various arenas.

Managing Director of Moelis & Company, Roger Hoit counsels financial sponsor clients on strategic matters. A leveraged buyout, an equity financing, a debt financing, and capital structure advice transactions are just a few of the many corporate finance transactions that Roger has originated and carried through over the course of his more than 25 years in the investment banking industry. The Private Equity Solutions Group's Chairman is Roger. Many of the largest private equity, alternative asset management, and family office companies in the world are among Roger's clientele. Roger works out of the Moelis & Company office in West Palm Beach, Florida.

WORK EXPERIENCEMoelis & Company

Managing Director

February 2009 - Present | Delray Beach, Florida, United States

EDUCATIONBachelor of Arts

Delray Beach, Florida, United States

LANGUAGESEnglish (Native)