

Derrick McBride

Author. Speaker. Entrepreneur

Derrick McBride, Author of “One Search For All,” engages audiences nationwide, recounting his journey to becoming an author and sharing the inspirational true story behind his book.

Derrick brings substantial expertise in startups, strategic management, partnership development, organizational management, and event planning. His knowledge spans business and program launch, facility development/management, deal structuring/negotiations, performance improvement, and strategic planning.

Derrick, Founder of Vizon Quest, a non-profit dedicated to serving at-risk kids through sports and training, boasts a diverse background. His experience includes co-founding Eventrics, an event management company, serving as the Executive Director of the YMCA/First Tee in Lakeland, Florida, and holding the position of CEO/Executive Director at the Boys and Girls Club of the Capital City in Jefferson City, Missouri. Derrick has successfully raised funds for both profit and non-profit programs, organized golf tournaments, and orchestrated high-profile events through his Florida-based event company.
