SPEAKING PROPOSAL:

"Overcoming Imposter Syndrome: Women Navigating Non Traditional Career Paths"

Femme Force is not just a brand; it's a movement that seeks to redefine the perception of strength, and celebrate the unique qualities that women bring to the professional landscape. I believe that embracing femininity and strength is a powerful combination, one that is often challenged by Imposter Syndrome when navigating non-traditional career paths.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- 1 Understanding Imposter Syndrome: An exploration of the psychological factors behind Imposter Syndrome and how it disproportionately affects women in non-traditional careers.
- 2 Embracing Feminine Strength: An examination of how feminine qualities, often undervalued in traditional roles, can become a competitive advantage in non-traditional career paths.
- 3 Success Stories: Sharing inspiring stories of women who've shattered glass ceilings in unconventional professions.
- 4 Practical Strategies: Equipping the audience with actionable strategies to overcome Imposter Syndrome, build self-confidence, and flourish in their unique career journeys.

ABOUT RACHAEL:

Hello, I'm Rachael, a small-town Ohio native with big dreams of exploring the world. I kicked off my career as one of the few female bodyguards in the industry, safeguarding some of the most celebrated individuals of our era. My journey led me to create Femme Force, a platform to manifest my personal brand. I'm deeply passionate about feminism, always drawing strength from female empowerment and encouragement. Join me on this incredible journey of self-discovery, empowerment, and inspiring change.
