

SURVIVING THE LAW

BY JOSE R. CAMPOS

SUMMARY

From growing up in America, undocumented, to becoming a successful lawyer, Surviving The Law is a remarkable story of resilience, passion, and the unwavering belief that, no matter the odds, you can carve your own path.

ABOUT JOSE

Jose Campos is an attorney, nonprofit founder, and community advocate. He earned a Bachelor of Science in Business from the University of Maryland and a Juris Doctor from the University of the District of Columbia David A. Clarke School of Law in 2012. He has been recognized with honors including Maryland's The Daily Record's "Leadership in Law Generation J.D.," El Tiempo Latino's "100 Most Influential People for the Hispanic Community," and Super Lawyers' "Rising Star" award.

Jose founded The Philemon Foundation, a nonprofit providing free housing for graduate students in need, and is an active member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association.

BOOK TITLE

Surviving The Law: From Undocumented Immigration To Doctors, Lawyers, and Scientists

GENRES

Memoir, Nonfiction, Immigration, Coming-Of-Age

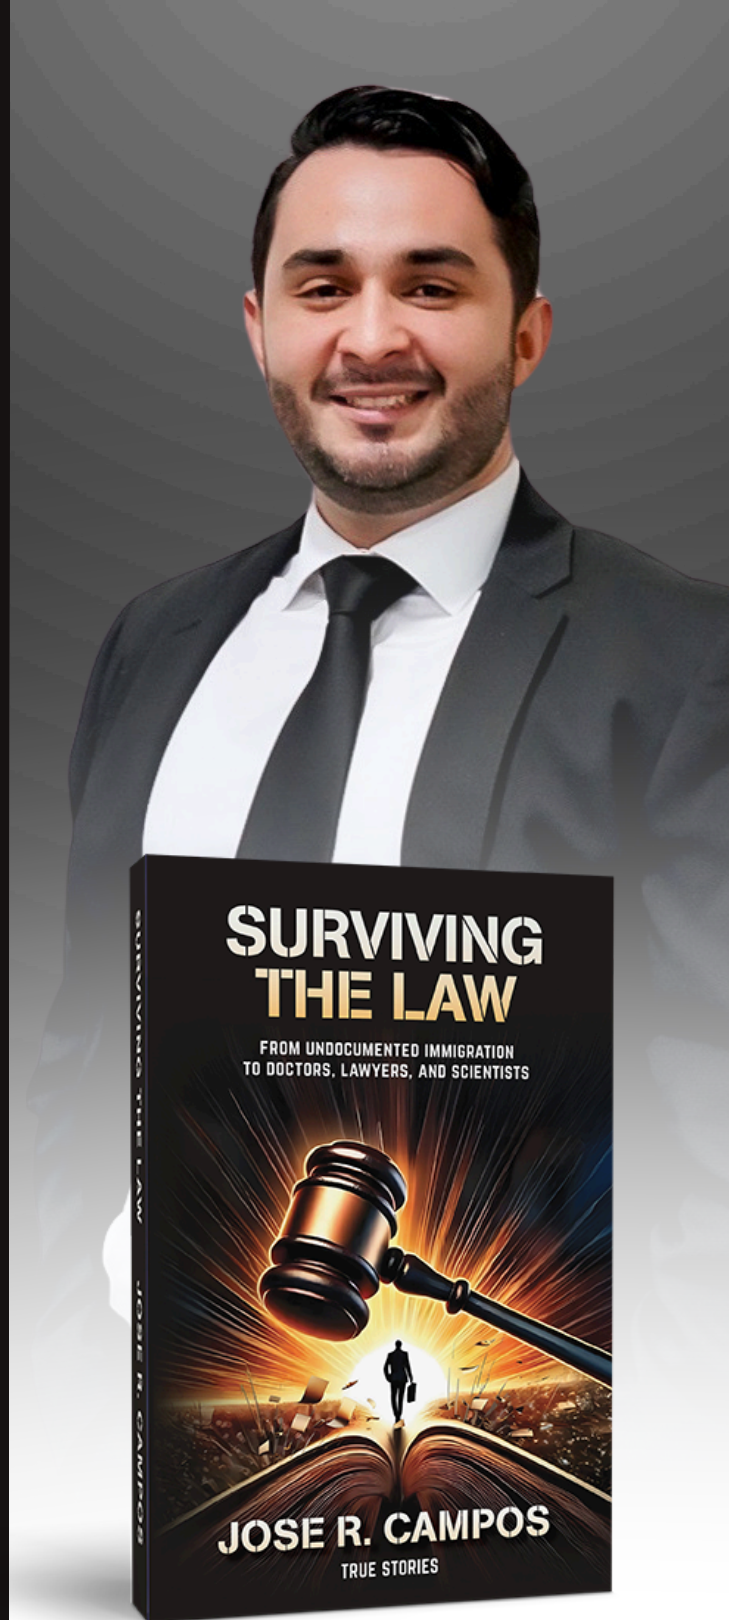

THEMES

Growth, Improvement, Education As Empowerment, Resilience, The Immigrant Experience

CONTACT INFORMATION

Email: jose@survivingthelaw.com
www.survivingthelaw.com

Price: $24.99 Pages: 317 Publication Date: 01/03/25

"This is a book about dreaming big dreams. Jose Campos' story demonstrates that a 17-year old immigrant from El Salvador can change his life and have a powerful impact on thousands more. Determination, discipline and a positive attitude allowed a student without papers to finish grad school. [His] lesson is quite clear: he did it, and you can too."

—Jorge Ramos, News Anchor/Univision