We had a great time working on our vision board as a team. Michelle was the most attentive, thoughtful and nicest host we could have asked for. She walked us through the benefits of setting up our vision board, shared examples to give us inspiration and have a detailed demo of Canva to help us get us started. She answers all our questions throughout the session and wrapped up with some thoughts and guidance on how we can continue our boards post session. Couldn't recommend Michelle and her vision board session more - you will have a fantastic time!

This event was a big hit with our team! I've been receiving feedback that the event was super insightful and fun, and the host, Michelle, was friendly, attentive, engaging, and an all around delight! Thank you so much!

Michelle was a great host. We organized her vision board workshop for a 2023 year kick-off with our community members! She went through great detail on how we can create vision boards and went at a nice pace for everyone. Highly recommend!

Cannot recommend Michelle and this experience enough. This was my first time creating a vision board and I loved how interactive and thoughtful the entire experience was. Michelle created a safe space for us to learn, share, and ask questions. I am so excited to finish my vision board tonight and will definitely be joining workshops with Michelle in the future!

Our Employee Resource Group had a great time creating virtual vision boards for the new year. The opening part was very helpful in getting us to think about goal setting and being intentional. Michelle also provided great examples and resources to create our own boards. Each step was easy to follow and flowed well within the hour timeframe we had. I would highly recommend booking a private session for a team or group.

I did this experience because a friend invited me. I was really sure if it would be my thing, but had a blast. I made a virtual vision board and ended up learning some skills that are even helpful for me in my job! Highly recommend.

I got so much more out of this than I anticipated. I have done vision boards for many years. This is my first experience doing one online. She had a great way of walking the group through the process to really get clear as well as stretching our comfort zones. She is very knowledgeable, engaging, and welcoming. She knows her stuff and knows how to teach it. I would recommend this and I would take it again.

I really enjoyed this experience. Of course, I have heard about manifestation but Michelle gave it new aspects with specific steps I hadn't thought about before. What's more, she was super flexible in accommodating me timewise and she sent me a lot of useful information after the session. Michelle is a kind and thoughtful person. I would recommend her session if you need a push in the right direction.
