

VALERIE GARCIA

I am an international speaker who works with entrepreneurs and businesses to help them grow and improve. I use both creative storytelling and actual nuts-and-bolts content to ensure that my audiences truly enjoy the learning process. Focusing on the importance of leading with joy, marketing like a human, and growth in the midst of change, I am known for delivering encouragement and truth with my signature straightforward style and sense of humor.

I have worked with major brands across the US, Canada, Europe, and Australia, and spent over 20 years inspiring, motivating, and educating sales and marketing professionals, helping them to challenge the traditional methods of marketing and find new ways to connect with their customers.

"Valerie Garcia is truly a voice of innovation, positivity and change within this industry. Whenever Valerie speaks, she does so with passion and purpose. She cares deeply about her audience's businesses and lives and seeks to improve both of them with each talk she gives. Your attendees will leave your event more motivated, more informed and equipped with actionable, practical strategies they can execute on immediately. If you need high-quality content, delivered by a top-tier speaker, you need to hire Valerie for your event."

Travis Robertson, Robertson Coaching International

"Thank you for everything you have done for our agents. They definitely want you back. You are so talented and have done more for my little brokerage than any speaker ever has. They all left with their heads held high and a new pep in their step. Looking forward to watching them all grow this year."

Elizabeth Golden, @Homes Realty, Huntsville, AL

"Thank you so much for the excellent presentation. It was hands down the most helpful, realistic and valuable presentation I have been to in years. I immediately saw some places I needed to improve in my company and things we can implement right away."

Mark Jones, RE/MAX Metro Atlanta, Inc., Atlanta, GA

"Valerie, I was not sure your class would be understandable for me since I'm at total zero with technology. It was a great help and guide for me. I don't know when a class was more fitting and organized to my needs. Thank you so much!

Sharon Cole, Little Rock, AR

"I had no idea what to expect when I first saw her walk on the stage at a conference. Catchy title, great voice and then she drew me into her story, so different from mine, yet somehow I felt she was speaking directly to me. I can't wait to hear her speak again."

Erik Hinshaw, Hawaii Life Real Estate Brokers, Oahu, HI

"Since the first time I heard Valerie speak, I always scan the line-up of speakers for any given conference, searching for her name. Her topics are relevant and delivered with raw honesty, compassion and a touch of humor."

Melissa Papacek, Twin Lakes, WI
