Author, Coach, Speaker, Survivor

CEO, Jose Connect LLC at JoseConnect.com

Jose Pereira is a distinguished author, executive coach, and international speaker best known for his impactful work with C-suite executives and business leaders. His memoir, From Hero to Villain: My True Story of the Citgo6, chronicles his remarkable journey as a member of the Citgo6, during which he survived nearly five years of wrongful imprisonment. This experience has shaped his deep understanding of resilience, leadership, and personal transformation.

Through his coaching program, Unbreakable Leadership, Jose helps senior leaders build resilience, align personal values with professional success, and lead with purpose. His programs are designed to assist high-level executives in navigating the pressures of leadership while maintaining balance and fulfillment in their personal lives.

Jose Pereira has become a sought-after expert on hostage diplomacy and international crises. He was a featured guest at the 78th UN General Assembly Hostage Aid Worldwide Forum, "Battling Hostage Diplomacy," and the Foley Foundation. He has been interviewed by major outlets, including CNN (English and Spanish), Time, Reuters, and ABC. A regular presence on TV, radio, and podcasts, Jose is frequently consulted by government agencies and organizations for his critical insights into hostage negotiations and their psychological impact. His expertise in navigating high-stakes situations is invaluable not only in the geopolitical arena but also in addressing the challenges faced by C-suite executives, entrepreneurs, and business leaders.
