SOCIAL MEDIA IS FOR SMALL BIZ!

Who is Karen?

Karen Liz Albert, a Social Media strategist, speaker, author, trainer and seminar leader, is the Founder and President of Behind Your Curtain, a Social Media marketing company. Karen has over 20 years experience in marketing, consulting and professional training. Karen has successfully used her internet marketing and Social Media expertise to launch targeted Social Media marketing campaigns for small to mid-size business owners and individual entrepreneurs. She has spoken to dozens of professional groups and organizations about how to use targeted local Internet and Social Media tools to achieve tangible marketing results and how they can be used to promote brand awareness and increase customers.

Karen has also developed workshops that help small to mid-size business owners create strategic internet marketing and social media plans that help them target their audience and distinguish their brand and/or service. Karen's presentation Social Media Is For Small Biz is targeted specifically towards educating business owners and entrepreneurs on the value of Social Media and Internet Marketing for their business and their individual brand.
