

RON Lewis Jr

FROM THE 1.3 TO THE DOCTORATE DEGREE: HELPING STUDENTS THRIVE IN THE CLASSROOM

LEARNING Outcomes

OVERCOMING ADVERSITY: How to rise above challenges and embrace resilience.	Conflict resolution, suicide and bullying Prevention
Diversity and Inclusion	Mental Health and Emotional intelligence

- The military helped him build confidence and earn several medals.
- Ron repeated the 9th grade twice with a 1.3 GPA.
- He went on to earn an MBA and a DBA in Entrepreneurship, making the Dean's List and joining the Delta Mu Delta Honor Society. As a disabled Army veteran with ADHD, PTSD, and TBI, he successfully transitioned into a career as a realtor.
- Ron uses his life experiences to inspire students, demonstrating that determination and self-belief can lead to success.

ABOUT RON Lewis jr.

- Ron Lewis Jr. is a specialist in school retention and dropout prevention.
- Despite being bullied and facing academic struggles, including repeating the 9th grade twice, he persevered and eventually completed his degree after nine years.

CLIENT Testimonial

“

Ron Lewis Jr., you're a true American hero. Your keynote speech at the Data Busters Summer Job Program was impactful. Thank you, and I look forward to working with you.

Data Busters Summer job program
"Glendora McCargo"

”

